Regarding Almondsbury Parish Council, it is comprised 3 main centres of population: Almondsbury, Eater Compton, and Hallen. Cribbs Causeway is not a distinct settlement in itself and is subject to change and mixed-use development, it is in the main divided from the rest of the parish by M5 motorway. Population in Cribbs Causeway at present is low, but will increase substantially with development over the next 20 years. The proposal to give 8 councilors to Cribbs at this stage is totally out of proportion both now and probably for the next 5 years. Leaving 2 main settlements of Hallen & Easter Compton with only 1 councilor is equally flawed. We propose that Ward Councilor numbers are left as they are at present, with a further review in 5 years' time when Cribbs has perhaps become a more distinct settlement in itself.
