Your feedback : I think the creation of three, seven councillor super-wards for Bedford Town and one, five councillor ward for the whole of Kempston Town would work, leaving the rural wards as they are. Bedford Town North should cover Brickhill, Goldington & Putnoe (and the new and evolving estates to the NE); Bedford Town Centre should cover Castle, De Parys, Harpur & Newnham; and Bedford Town South should cover Cauldwell, part of Eastcotts up to the bypass, Elstow village (from Wilshamsted Ward), Kingsbrook and Queens Park. The three Bedford areas would have roughly similar populations, c.20,000 - close to 3000 electors to one councillor. These four super-wards should form new Urban Community Councils too. There are the issues of an area of Ampthill Road estate which is presently in one of the Kempston wards when it clearly should be in Cauldwell and some roads off Bedford Road, Kempston in Cauldwell ward which are clearly part of Kemspton which need resolving as we ll.
