Dear Sir/Madam

Draft recommendations for Buckinghamshire County Council

Whilst it is not our normal practice to comments on the arrangements for the County Council we ask that you make the following changes to the proposed warding arrangements for Aylesbury Town Council:

1. The Town Council has 25 rather than 24 members currently which needs to be reflected in the recommendations. The number of members in the Central Ward was increased from one to two in February 2011 following a Community Governance review. A copy of the order is attached and this aspect is covered in paragraph 11..
2. The distribution of seats between wards could be improved. The following changes to seat allocations would be fairer in terms of the number of electors represented by each councillor:
  - Oakfield South Ward to return two members and Bedgrove North Ward one member.
  - Elmhurst Ward to return two members and Southcourt Ward three members.

Yours faithfully

Leslie White
