Subject: The Northants review

Dear Sir,

While I do agree that the size of Northamptonshire Council should be reduced in terms of County Councillors I do not agree with the current administration submission of 57 councillors because of the amount of constituents councillors will have to be responsible for also in some rural areas the spread would be excessive.

I would like to see the size of the council reduced from the current 73 Councillors to a minimum of 62 and no less. This is likely to provide the council with a more even manageable spread constituents and equalization of wards/divisions. Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,

Winston Strachan
