Dear Jessica

I am expressing my own opinion as a resident of Appleton with Eaton Parish.

Our connections are more towards the Oxford side and further away.

We have closer links with Cumnor than any other, other than maybe, Besselsleigh, which is a hamlet and very small.

School children move up to the same secondary school, Matthew Arnold in Cumnor.

Buses moving through our village, would go to Cumnor.

There are people who lived in Appleton and then, move to Cumnor.

Children play in football, cricket teams in Cumnor.

Many people use the facilities of Post Office in Cumnor (open 5 days vs 2 mornings in Appleton).

We use the library and shops in Botley, which is at the bottom of Cumnor (but they are in the North Hinksey Parish).

I would like our Parish kept as a whole rather than split up between divisions.

I would say that there is 'a love-hate' relationship between Appleton and Cumnor!

It would be good that we have equal representation of County Councillors depending on the number of electors rather than on area or location.

Kind regards
Tian
