Comment text:

I think the whole of Beaconsfield should be in one ward, to include the Old Town down to the M40, Seeleys, Sandelswood, Wilton Park, Disraeli Park. Knotty Green and Penn Road as well as the New Town. I don't think it makes sense to have these areas in different wards represented by different councillors, or indeed different MPs when the interests of the town should be considered as a whole and we should also know who is representing us and our interests. being in different wards and having some areas represented by Gerrards Cross or Penn councillors does not seem appropriate as those towns/villages are several miles away and have different issues and priorities.
