

East Hertfordshire District CouncilPersonal Details:*Organisation Name:*Comment text:

I am not happy that the proposed new ward name doesn't include Aston. Aston was named in the Doomesday Book and it's such a pity that it's name will be lost. With the addition of 618 dwellings plus care home and assisted living in the parish, we will not be a small parish anymore. I would like the Ward to be called Aston, Datchworth and Walkern.
