I object to the fact that you are underhandedly b####sh/%ing the people of cheltenham into thinking they will get more councillors to do the right thing for them anf their area when really it's so you can give Tewkesbury (yet again) more of our wards.... the people that live, work and send their children to school in any area of cheltenham deserve ro be represnted by their own council and by a councillor that actually lives in their town! Why cant all of the wards already handed over to tewks be given back and an imaginary line drwn through cheltenham and have cheltenham north and cheltenham south? Therefore the size of each would remain within the voting limit. Its impossible to believe you just hand over wards willy nilly to another town. The last time you canvased about this a year ago you said it was inevitable that this would happen! 1, just be honest instead of using the back door 2, why bother with this ridiculous charade 3,why is it inevitable when there is no need for it to be
