Comment text:

Splitting a community defined by geography and existing established community groups, charities and the way services work makes little sense. It also makes little sense to endeavour to fix the boundaries by changing them at a time when the population is growing at a rate of 13% (2021 census data) and there's many more homes being built on this side of town. It defies logic, any new wards so defined now will be rapidly out of date.
