Comment text:

Not sure why Natborough as a community is split into two. We do not need another councillor for what is in effect a housing estate. We share the village, the heart of our community and it's facilities and should be united. Narborough should be one ward. The Pastures ward abolished and Littlethorpe could be a separate ward if Narborough and Littlethorpe is too large a ward. Traditionally though Narborough and Littlethorpe have always felt one community and it would be a shame to split them. All the people of Narborough and Littlethorpe should be united to reinforce our sense of community.
