Comment text:

Re Hasland Ward It would make sense for 'Hasland' to include St Leonard's Drive and Spital Lane. Also including the housing around lower end of Hasland Road [ie between the bypass and the railway/Derby Road] as part of Hasland ward would be more logical. While parts of Derby Road and St Augustines have historically been included in 'Hasland', I think the main line railway and river Rother to be physical boundaries that separate off the two areas.
