I feel strongly that whatever number is chosen, it is on the basis that election ward boundary has just one Cllr. The present arrangement (where we have 3 and had for a year 6) just doesn't work, It is especially difficult in a diverse ward which elects Cllrs from different political parties. So, decide how many wards Bucks needs then have one Cllr for each ward... or if you have to decide the number of Cllrs first, then make sure each Cllr then gets a unique ward.
