The Belle Vale ward currently has a strange 'dog leg' that takes in one side of Chelwood Avenue and Thornton Rd etc. It makes more sense to have both sides of Chelwood Ave and roads backing on to Court Hey Park in the Childwall ward. I used to live in the above area where my postal address was Childwall but I was in Belle Vale ward. Now I've moved and my postal address is Woolton but I'm in the Allerton and Hunts across ward, it doesn't make sense.
