Good morning,

It is my understanding that in the proposed electoral boundary changes, Pixham is due to join North Dorking and thus be linked with the town rather than with West Humble & Mickleham. Pixham is physically separate from Dorking town, divided by both the railway and the A24, and is, in essence, an independent village. Therefore, it would seem to make more sense for it to be linked with West Humble and Mickleham, so that its similar needs and set-up can be addressed together, rather than getting lost in the different needs and concerns of the town.

Regards,
