To Whom it May Concern, I am totally against the proposal to alter the boundary of the Penn Ward. The present boundary along the northern edge is clearly defined, running along the centre of Coalway Road and Goldthorn Hill and it makes common sense for it to remain as it is. The proposal would make a very indistinct and confusing boundary and serves little purpose. Some of the residential properties left in and some out and likewise, some of the commercial properties left in and some taken out. If allowed to go ahead it would result in utter confusion for collection/delivery services and the residents. Whoever thought that one up must have a political agenda and has not given any thought or consideration to the people affected. For instance, St. Michael's church is the only Catholic church in the ward and means a lot to its parishioners. I have lived in Penn for the majority of my life and have an affinity with the local area, the people and its amenities; and am proud to be part of that community. On a personal note, I also fear that it will have a detrimental effect on house prices and insurance premiums. Yours faithfully, [REDACTED].
