We [REDACTED] object in the strongest possible way at the new plans for our ward to be changed from Penn to Graislely. We have lived at this property for over 30 years and we are very proud to be apart of the Penn area. Further more, our road (Coalway Road) is a obvious clear boundary between Penn and Graislely. It is uterly shameful that it is being reconsiderd as Graislely. Our neighbor [REDACTED] share our strong concerns and we are extremely angry at this notion. Graislely is an area not as clean as Penn, as affluent as Penn, and has very high crime rates. Graislely is not a ward we would like to be part of. Under the plans, I can also see that a little bit of Coalway Avenue is also brought into the Graislely boundary. My question is why change it all? Leave it as it is! Coalway road is a clear boundary between Penn, Graislely and Pennfields and if councillors and whomever are pushing these plans can't see that, then shame of you! We hope this will not go ahead and we object in the strongest terms. We have worked very hard out entire lives to live in an nice, clean area and are insulted at the proposal to be named under Graislely ward. [REDACTED]
