Having seen the proposals I totally disagree with them. I live on Firwood Avenue which our houses are totally different from the style to those on Barkway Road which is M32 I am very proud to live in Urmston and strongly disagree with the changes Not only will our house prices reduce due to the change in postcode but our insurances will increase too. I have lived on this road for some 34 years and do not and will not class myself as living in Stretford Kind regards [REDACTED]
