It makes absolutely no sense that 'Grassendale Park' and 'St Mary's Church Grassendale' and 'Grassendale road' are not within the Grassendale boundary. There is no such area as Cressington. Cressington station is named after Cressington park. Cressington Park is in Grassendale not Garston. Likewise my council tax says 'Woodend Park Grassendale' not Garston or Cressington. As such Cressington, Woodend and Grassendale parks should be remain within the Grassendale boundary as they have very different demographics to Garston.
