I am a resident of Hollingdean and find it odd that the area that comprises of 'Fiveways' and Hollingdean have been subsumed under one name. It feels unreasonable to label the areas as Fiveways since Hollingdean has a distinctive feel and demographic. There are, for instance, enterprises and community groups working specifically in this area. Growing Hollingdean, Hollingdean Community Centre, Hollingdean Children's Centre and the newsletter Hollingdean News all speak to this area as distinctive. I therefore feel the name 'Fiveways and Hollingdean' would be more appropriate and representative of this ward.
