Albion Street very much feels like it shouldn't be Queen's Park, it should be Hanover & Elm Grove. As Phoenix Rise and half of Albion Street etc are proposed to move to Hanover and Elm Grove, the entirety of Albion Street should as well because of its proximity. Albion Street does not feel like Queen's Park - it doesn't make community sense. Albion Street is much more connected as a community to Hanover and Elm Grove rather than Queen's Park. Queen's Park, as someone who lives in [REDACTED], starts much more from Grove Hill up, not from Albion Street.
