I have examined the proposed boundary changes affecting the Patcham and Hollingbury Ward. The Mackie estate has always been part of Patcham and in my opinion should remain the case. Creating a new ward and combining Patcham with Westdene is unnecessary. Westdene is a community in its own right. Patcham including the Mackie Estate is a well established community. Patcham Methodist Church will no longer be geographically in Patcham. Please reconsider the proposals and leave the status quo which has worked well for many decades.
