Dear Sirs,

I'm writing with regard to the Local Government Boundary Commission consultation for the city which has currently left the Dyke Park triangle in the Preston Park ward.

This is an utterly nonsensical suggestion. Dyke Road has always partitioned the city and the Preston Park ward resided in Brighton, not Hove. The green is in fact even named 'Hove Green'. It also makes no sense that you would divide two colleges that work so closely together. Further to this, historically the college was always known to us locals as 'Hove 6th Form College'.

The suggestion is no more sensible than myself requesting Preston Park to be moved into the Hove Park ward.

I urge you to reconsider such a bizarre proposal.

Kind Regards,
