Comment text:

I object to the new boundary proposals in the Patcham Ward, for the reason that I feel it serves no purpose. Having lived and grown up in Patcham I feel that this is a waste of resources and a totally unnecessary exercise in pencil pushing. I also feel this has not been explained enough nor have the public been informed enough on what these proposals mean and what the benefits are. I cannot see any benefits in dividing a community and giving them less power as a voting electorate. As such I would urge you to abandon this foolhardy initiative.
