Comment text:

I have read in detail the proposed changes to the Patcham and Hollingbury ward boundaries in the Brighton & Hove area. This is a very disappointing read indeed. Patcham has ALWAYS been a community village for the people living in the area. To split Patcham would have a devastating and detrimental effect on the local community. The Mackie estate, Ladies Mile Road, etc has ALWAYS been in Patcham and is considered part of the local and well established community. In my opinion this proposal is totally unnecessary and will create far more problems than it will solve. Please re-consider these proposals and leave Patcham as a close-knit community unit.
