Please do not cut Patcham in half. I fear half of Patcham as a community will be under represented if swallowed up into Carden and Hollingbury who have a different demographic of residents and issues. Not to mention, I chose to buy in Patcham due to its village like appeal. Hollingbury on the other hand is considerably less desirable. I feel this new merger could negatively impact our house prices in Patcham. Patcham should remain as one not be split in half
