I live at [REDACTED] Fernwood Rise (Westdene). I see we have two choices going forward – either go in with Patcham or go in with Hove Park. This is my view as a Westdene resident: There is no link between Westdene and Patcham. No buses or public transport. People from Westdene just don't go there. It doesn't fit together well as a ward as there are too many obstacles (Railway line, tunnels, A27, Patcham Roundabout etc) to even get there. There is a link between Westdene and Hove Park though. The shops and walking routes for instance. The café and post office at Woodland Drive. The tennis club at Hove Park. And bus routes. I therefore choose the option to go in with Hove Park. Thank you for asking for our views and please let me know the result.
