Comment text:

I object to the proposal of splitting Patcham into two different wards because it would divide the community in half along the arbitrary boundary. Under the boundary proposals it would be split, Patcham and Hollingbury would also be drawn next to Vale Avenue. Patcham residents interested in the Royal Mail issue come from across Patcham but would end up having to deal with two sets of councillors on the matter depending on which side of Vale Avenue they lived. It is much clearer for residents when communities are kept together in the same ward and only have one councillor to deal with. Westdene is not near the Patcham area, Patcham should be kept in one ward so that residents of that area can comment on local issues easily, without any confusion about which ward they are in.
