I don't think you should split out Southam with surrounding villages. Long Itchington's needs are very different to Southam's as are Stockton's. Would it not make more sense to split into Southam West & Southam East, Stockton & Long Itchington as 4 Separate Wards? Combine Bascote with either Southam West or Long Itchington. If you need more divisions following the massive growth due to the building in the area, divide Southam up into North, South, East & West but I would still keep Long Itch & Stockton separately. Your proposal is confusing & somewhat muddled. It doesn't have any bearing on the needs or issues in these areas. Please reconsider.
