I would like to support the submitted Mid-Worcestershire Liberal Democrat submission for the proposed boundaries. I am not a Liberal Democrat myself (in fact I am a member of Plaid Cymru!) but their approach to this consultation has been open, driven by community and not been focused on politics. They have consulted with communities to ensure that those of us who wouldn't necessarily submit to this sort of consultation, are still listened to. The area is a complex one and they have recognised the differences between the north and south of the area, recognised the need to be flexible with regard to ward sizes and have shown that the focus is on residents, not philosophical or political gain. I am particularly supportive of the Pershore ward boundary, which should remain a three person ward. I am also supportive of Fladbury, Drakes Broughton, Pinvin and the Bredon area wards, which clearly recognise the communities of the area and the change that is coming over the next few years. I also support the loss of a seat in Droitwich which does seem over-represented at the moment. The number of rural 2 member wards is a bit strange and do think they need separating where possible.
