Comment text:

As City and County Councillor for Claines I find the City ward works well as it is. There is a real sense of community with high voter turnout and the boundaries work well with the geography of the river and the Northern location. With the councillor / electorate ration being within tolerance I have nothing further to add. Whilst outside of this review, thinking ahead to the upcoming Worcestershire boundary review, Wychavon residents from Bevere Green plus the new Bellway housing estate (land formerly known as Gwillam's Farm) often contact me as the neighbouring Councillor with adjoining issues, as they are some distance from other Wychavon properties, the closest housing development being in Fernhill Heath.
