I oppose continual re-grouping. My road (Amblecote Road) is often used as 'ballast' - shunted from one ward to another just to balance out populations. There is no community of interest. The road is split between wards and I have yet to find a councillor take any interest in it (so it probably doesn't matter what ward it is in!!). We are currently in Lye but the Lye councillors (for obvious reasons) are only interested in the big population groups in central Lye. My family has lived in this house since 1958 and I have never yet found a councillor take any interest in Amblecote Road at all - eg the effects of mobile phone relay equipment on the television mast or dangerous abandoned or semi-abandoned cable TV junction boxes along the road, not to mention speeding!!
