We (County officers, Councillor colleagues and myself) have tried to find a way to increase the electoral area of WWV without creating corresponding problems in any of the adjacent divisions and/or creating cultural mismatches, and we have concluded that we can't provide a suitable rearrangement. At the same time WWV covers a very substantial area and any significant enlargement would risk markedly reducing the ability of any elected representative to provide a good service to his or her electorate. We have therefore concluded that WWV should remain as it is, albeit out of range by 0.4%, in the best interests of its and its neighbouring communities.
