Related subject: Tatsfield

In 46 years living in Tatsfield I have never had cause to visit or stop in Limpsfield. There is no natural link, connection or association between the two villages. Tatsfield is a unique, geographically self-contained community. It looks towards Biggin Hill, in London Borough of Bromley, for services, not to an entirely separate part of Tandridge. If the Commission had visited the area or even studied a map it would understand that any link with Limpsfield is entirely artificial. For these reasons I strongly disagree with the Commission's proposals for a new ward combining Tatsfield and Limpsfield. The current arrangement is not broken so please do not try to impose an unworkable 'solution' on our community.
