I have lived in Oxshott for 40 years, it is a thriving village with a chemist, church, sports club, doctors surgery and village hall. It is unthinkable that you are even considering splitting the village in two depending on which side of the road you happen to reside. I have spent 23 years on one side of the road and now 17 on the side I now reside. To split the village in two would tear apart the very fabric of its identity
