I wholeheartedly disagree with the proposal to split Long Ditton and Thames Ditton. This seems to be a nonsensical proposal. As the LDRA points out, the two areas have been joined since the Middle Ages and to separate them now would be a travesty. I am desperate to rid the country of this conservative government in the next general election and I fear if you go ahead with this proposal the Lib Dem's could lose a lot of potential voters. Please reconsider and keep the Dittons together.
