Comment text:

I totally disagree. The clue is in our lovely 'village' names, Ditton, Thames Ditton and Long Ditton. Firstly I see nothing that warrants the money that has been spent on this rubbish, of all the things that our area needs, more school places, more doctor appointments, better road conditions, better transport and this is what you spend the money on? How can splitting the Dittons give us community identity? It is dividing us. It's in the name. I could go on, but if the names are not enough of a reason to not change anything, then it's already done, and this is just lip service.
