Related subject: Oxshott

I am writing on behalf of myself and my mother. . I lived for 20 years in Oxshott and my mother has been living there for 60 years. We strongly disagree with the proposal to draw a new boundary down the A244 and eliminate the name Oxshott. Oxshott is a place local people identify with strongly: it has a church, two pubs, a high street, a railway station and sports club.

This proposal strikes us as wholly insensitive to the history of Oxshott. I am certain whatever objectives are sought to be achieved can be achieved in a way that keeps the identity of Oxshott. England is renown for protecting not obliterating its history.
