I disagree with the proposal for Oxshott. We are a village and a community as a whole. The suggestion that the village can be split into two down the main high street is not well thought out. Some businesses and residences would fall into one area and the other side fall into another. This detrimental to the community and the identity of our community. I believe if this was to go ahead it would lead to the village being seen as a throughfare even more than it is and not a village that has existed for many years.
