I disagree that Long Ditton should be swept up by the Hinchley Wood district. I've lived in the area for over 30 years and we are closely aligned with Thames Ditton. The villages together are the Dittons, we have the Ditton fair and the magazine Ditton life. Hinchley Wood identifies as Esher and the two have vastly different feels. Our Scout group is the Dittons. Our councillors often work together over common issues ie The green belt and Stokes Field. We have a common village identity that we do not wish to be eroded. I believe if you merge us with another area we will become voiceless in the electorate. The needs of the Dittons and Hinchley Wood are different.
