I was born and raised in Grangetown Sunderland and have always lived local. I am a 59 year old married woman and have lived in Hollycarrside for 10 years, hollycarrside has always been a part of Ryhope. Ryhope has always been known as a pit village and the pit was in the Hollycarrside area of Ryhope. The community are very close-knit and look out for each other. I do not agree with splitting Hollycarrside into Grangetown at all, leechmere industrial estate has always been the separation between Grangetown and Hollycarrside. To separate Hollycarrside from Ryhope is splitting a community in two. I suffer from mental health issues, which I'm sure many are in the local area, what with the cost of living crisis, unemployment etc this will not help us at all. Please, please keep us together as we have always been
