I do not believe there is a justification for as many as 69 county councillors, on top of the 38 in the VOWH DC. It is already far too many at the current 63. Given the population estimate of 580,747 in 2029 the maximum should be 50, giving each councillor an electorate of 11615.

In my view, there should be a radical review of the council arrangements in the county. rather than this tinkering at the edges. . I
