I live in Horns Road which is clearly a part of the centre of Stroud. Everything here points to the centre of Stroud which is a 5 minute walk. We have zero associations with Painswick and Bisley and we are very different in character i.e. we are part of the town. It makes sense to keep the town and district contiguous and no sense to not do so. In addition, many of the Stroud amenities are in our road (hospital, pub, graveyard). We are culturally, geographically and practically part of Stroud and so this proposal is impractical and completely unacceptable.
