I object to the proposed boundary changes.

- Too many diverse areas of the county to be adequately represented.
- The area is too large to be successfully represented by individual(s).
- Attracting electable representatives with enough local knowledge will be a struggle
- the amount of time required to fulfil relevant duties will be too onerous.
- the representation of such an area with populations in rural and town locations will present a conflict of interests

To my mind implementation of these proposed boundary changes benefits no one and would be mean less representation than at present.
