Dear Sir/Madam,

Under the Freedom of Information Act please can you provide the following information:

Please can you list all the items reported lost by employees between October 2014 to October 2015 and categorise them into items lost worth under £100, items lost worth under £500 and items lost worth more than £500.

Can you repeat the same request for the dates October 2013 to October 2014 and October 2012 to October 2013.

Kindest regards

Dear [REDACTED],

Our ref: 09/15

Thank you for your request for information, dated 11 November 2015, under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You have requested:

“...list all the items reported lost by employees between October 2014 to October 2015 and categorise them into items lost worth under £100, items lost worth under £500 and items lost worth more than £500.

Can you repeat the same request for the dates October 2013 to October 2014 and October 2012 to October 2013.”

The Commission does not hold information relevant to your request, as no items have been lost by employees since the Commission came into being in 2010.

If you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact my colleague, Karen Cleverly, quoting the reference number above in any correspondence.

If you wish to request a review of our decision, you should write to Karen at:

Karen Cleverly

Business Support Officer
Local Boundary Commission for England
14th Floor Millbank Tower
Millbank
SW1P 4QP

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint or review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: <http://www.ico.gov.uk>.

Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the Local Government Boundary Commission for England.

Yours sincerely,

Sarah Vallotton
