I am a resident in Beaconsfield and appreciate living in a close-knit community. Having taken a look at the new plans, it does not make sense to me to split the parliamentary boundaries of Beaconsfield into two. Why would a part of Beaconsfield join the Chesham and Amersham Parliamentary Constituency? It would split parts of the Old Town and Wilton Park off from the rest of the Town and the town would have 2 different MPs. The town would surely be best served by one MP who treats the town as a whole? Surely it would make far more sense to see the town unified into the new constituency, so that the Old Town is not divided into two and ALL of Beaconsfield including the whole of Seeleys estate, Sandelswood estate and Knotty Green are included in the same new constituency. Thank you for your consideration.
