A good portion of Beaconsfield parish is not in Beaconsfield ward - all the area to the south of the A40 and east of A355 is part of Gerrards Cross ward. This includes the new Wilton Park estate, which will have a much greater impact on Beaconsfield than Gerrards Cross, so should be in the Beaconsfield ward. There is also a mismatch between Chalfont St Giles and Chalfont St Peter parish and ward - there is a significant area that is in St Peter parish, but in St Giles ward, which does include streets that are certainly part of St Peter. I'm sure this happens in other areas of the county, but this is the area local to me. In general, would it not be better to align ward boundaries with the existing parish boundaries, combining parishes if they are small, but retaining the same boundaries.
