Who came up with this stuff? Clearly the person who decided the boundaries in Chalfont St Peter for example did not consult local people and has no idea about what goes on in the village. Gold Hill including the Baptist Church at the top of Gold Hill are clearly within Chalfont St Peter and not Chalfont St Giles. The village hall pub in Gold Hill is a Chalfont St Peter pub. Both these establishments are within easy walking distance of the centre of Chalfont St Peter and yet are at least 2 miles away from the centre of Chalfont St Giles. This is simply idiotic.
