It is ridiculous and utter madness to split the Beaconsfield old town and make all land south of the A40 part of Gerrard's Cross. What are you thinking? Beaconsfield to remain a community should be maintained as one and not split. Look at it with care. You would be drawing boundaries with no relation to how the town operates and integrates. Reminiscent of Sykes-Picot and a lack of thought and logic for the long term. Keep the old town as one, part of Beaconsfield. Let's not lose our way.
