I live on berryfields, which is aylesbury! Not stone or Waddesdon!! I think this needs to be moved into the correct ward of Aylesbury. Berryfields has NK connection to atone or Waddesdon which are both way away from us. We are part of Aylesbury. Additionally, I volunteer at a local radio station, Red Kite Radio, and Waddesdon and Stone receive decent radio signal for our FM broadcast. Berryfields doesn't. Similar to Aylesbury. This proves more that the boundary is wrong.
