Comment text:

The Down End and Wallington ward is too vast for just 2 councillors to serve it effectively. Down End has nothing in common with Wallington, mainly because it is severed by the slip road going up to junction 11 of the M27, so there is no connectivity. Likewise these two areas have nothing in common with the area north of the M27, which, if it is ever built, is presumably Welborne. It looks as if someone with no knowledge of the area has just looked at a map and drawn some lines on it. I also feel that this consultation is just a box ticking exercise, and everything has already been decided, so our input is just a waste of time and effort.
